Karou's journey is one of self-discovery. She grapples with her past, her identity, and her place in a world fractured by an ancient war between angels and chimaera. Then there's Akiva, the angel whose piercing gaze and conflicted soul steal Karou's – and the reader's – heart. As a warrior for the angelic host, Akiva has witnessed and participated in unimaginable horrors. Yet, beneath his hardened exterior lies a deep well of compassion and a yearning for something more. His encounter with Karou ignites a forbidden love that defies the centuries-old animosity between their races. Akiva's struggle between his duty to his kind and his love for Karou is one of the most poignant arcs in the series. His actions and motivations often create friction with Akiva, highlighting the diverse interpretations of duty and morality within the angelic ranks. He's a crucial piece in the larger puzzle of angelic society. * Madara: A stern and formidable angel, Madara serves as a powerful adversary and a symbol of the ingrained hatred between angels and chimaera. Her unwavering conviction in the righteousness of her cause makes her a formidable antagonist, representing the darkest aspects of angelic dogma. * The Choir: While not individual characters in the traditional sense, the collective entity of the angelic Choir represents the vastness and power of their celestial army.
